GO GO GO DO THE HOLIDAY ROCK!

Director's Notes

As well as our annual pantomime, an autumn play is a Harden Players tradition. In picking Hi-De-Hi! this year, we wanted something funny and uplifting. Set in the Maplin's Holiday Camp, we are transported back to the carefree summer of 1959.

For those of you too young to remember the hit BBC sitcom, Hi-De-Hi! ran for nine series from 1980 to 1988 and regularly pulled in TV audiences of over 16 million. Written by David Croft and Jimmy Perry (Dad's Army; It Ain't Half Hot, Mum; You Rang M'Lord), the superb script has had us all laughing through rehearsals so we hope you enjoy it as much as we have.

In addition to our wonderful cast, special mention must go to the scenery, sets and props beautifully designed, painted and dressed by society members. Tonight's performance also involves you, the audience – it's really not the same without you! So thank you for coming along, you have our full permission to laugh, cry, sing, applaud and have a jolly good time.

Every Harden Players performance involves lots of people from across our community – as well as acting, singing and dancing, there is sewing, set-building, playing music, scriptwriting and tea-making! If you fancy getting involved, there is a role for you. We guarantee you'll enjoy yourself, have a laugh and meet lots of new friends.
